

Beverley Garden Club Resolution

Given that the Natural Bridge should be open for all to see for a reasonable price, and that it and the surrounding area should be preserved and protected from development, the Beverley Garden Club of Staunton, Virginia, resolves to ally ourselves with the movement to make the Natural Bridge and the surrounding area a part of the state of national park system.

September 26, 2013